08. Excellence in Business in Corporate Social Responsibility

This award recognises a Northern Territory business (of any size) that has made a meaningful and measurable impact through collaboration with community organisations, other businesses, not-for-profits, or philanthropic individuals.

The focus of this category is on Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR) and community collaboration across all aspects of Environmental, Social and Governance (ESG) initiatives. It celebrates partnerships that result in positive, long-term outcomes for the community, environment, or broader society.

Examples of eligible initiatives may include (but are not limited to):

- Zero-waste or circular economy programs
- Local capability-building – supply chains, workforce development, or long-term partnerships
- Sustainability transformations or integrated reporting
- Social enterprise creation or support
- Community-led projects – such as gardens, sports or recreation programs, or housing initiatives
- Cultural or environmental stewardship activities

Entry Criteria

Entrants are required to demonstrate their achievements over the past 12 months in the following areas:

- The development, design and implementation of their initiative or program
- How collaboration and community engagement shaped the outcome
- Measurable community and/or commercial benefits
- The sustainability and long-term vision of the initiative
- Innovation and leadership in embedding CSR or ESG practices within their business

This is a self-nomination category.
